Royal 2026 Royale Update

27 Dealers have paid for tables There is still room for 5 or 6 more.

To date we have 37 full registrations, 2 dinner registrations, Over 60 full registrations are anticipated. The Uptown Waterloo BIA has donated goody bags for full registrants, containing uptown Waterloo Maps and business information. Do you have access to something to donate to full registrants that exemplifies our communities ?

Oxford Philatelic Society Woodstock and Brantford Stamp Club have joined the “Registration Challenge Club” for the show. Contact Al Hills to find out what is involved for your local club. Al was in Brantford February 3rd, Guelph on February 4th, and London February 13th to do a talk about the Royal and why you should be attend.

Souvenir Show Program – We are looking for advertisements in the Souvenir Program to be given out at Royal 2026 from Chapters, Dealers, Philatelists, and businesses. Contact Alan Hills to advertise in this keepsake.

12 Individuals have entered Competitive exhibits to date. 3 of these exhibits are Youth Exhibits. Over 150 frames of exhibits are expected, plus frames for Freestyle Philately.

The Royal Philatelic Society of Canada will debut a new, informal display format at this year’s Royal convention, aimed at encouraging broader participation and personal storytelling within the hobby. Jean Wang, Exhibit Chair, says “Freestyle Philately,” is an initiative designed to provide collectors with a low pressure way to share material from their collections outside the competitive exhibiting framework.

On the April 20th Stamp Panel on RPSC Zoom Talks, Jean Wang will introduce Freestyle Philately, and act as a facilitator at the frames to encourage new exhibitors. Saturday trip to St. Jacobs’ Market will also be presented.

Planning for a Saturday trip to the St. Jacob’s Market for Registrants has begun.

Would you be able to help out with this for a few hours on Saturday June 13th?
